

What Will You Do?

Jesus knew that making the right choice can be difficult at times. But he also taught that when we make a wrong choice we should try to make it right before receiving his body and blood in Holy Communion. Here is some practice in making right choices.

Your dad told you to clean up your toys, but you're having fun. You don't want to stop playing. Besides, the room is messy, and you don't feel like cleaning up. What will you do?

Your mom made only enough cookies for your brother's class. She tells the family not to eat any. You really want a cookie, so you decide to take one. Mom notices a cookie is gone.

What will you do?

Some of your friends have started using bad language because it makes them feel cool. Each day you hear words you know your parents don't like. Your friends even use the names of God and Jesus as if they were just bad words, and they call you a baby because you won't talk like them.

What will you do?

You're throwing a ball in the house and break your mom's favorite table decoration. Mom hears the crash and comes running to see what happened. If you tell the truth, you know you will be punished. You could say you accidentally bumped the table.

What will you do?

You're with friends when they start teasing an unpopular girl, taking her things and calling her names. If you stick up for her, the group could start picking on you. You start to slip away, but someone throws you the girl's backpack. What will you do?

You're in the middle of an intense video game. Just a few more points and you'll beat your high score. You hear Dad say it's time to turn off the game. The game's loud, so it would be easy to pretend you didn't hear. That way, you could finish the game.

What will you do?